General Comment

I have been trading options for years in various types of accounts. I have worked hard to learn as much as is possible about options trading. I also have three IRA accounts. I do not want restrictions on what I do with these accounts, as they are a part of my much-needed income. I presently have a few covered calls and a few uncovered puts, and I would like to have these remain active, as the expiration for two of them is January 2017. I would also like to continue to use options for my IRA accounts. The government should not be restricting what one can do with his/her IRA more than what is already done.
